

What is Cross-Professional Supervision?

Cross-Professional Supervision fosters an intentional dialogue between

- Soul – a person’s inner motivation
- Role – the demands of a person’s field of work
- & Context – the nitty gritty realities which enable or inhibit a person to find harmony between soul and role.

The course takes a soulful and inclusive approach to life and work and invites participants to engage with their own wisdom practices and traditions.

Creativity features strongly in the course and colour, sound, image, poetry and embodiment are all employed in supervisory teaching and practice.

The course is open to experienced practitioners who wish to better support the wellbeing of others and offers frameworks and practical ways of working across the professions. Previous participants have come from counselling and psychological therapies; NHS; third sector; children’s residential care; dramatherapy; music therapy; dance movement psychotherapy; adult education and development; ministry; prison chaplaincy; health chaplaincy and youth work.

Training Programme

Phase One – Experience as a Supervisee

Evidence confirms that the best way to learn to supervise is to have had prior experience of being well supervised. For this reason prospective applicants are required to have been in supervision with a professional supervisor for a minimum of six sessions before commencing the course.

Phase Two – Diploma Level Course

Phase two consists of

- 12 day training programme (one day per month)
- Individual mentoring supervision (one hour per month over 12 months)
- 25 hours of supervisory practice over the duration of the course
- Peer learning partnerships meeting virtually outside of the course days

Phase Two leads to the award of a

- Diploma in Cross-Professional Supervision

DIPLOMA IN CROSS-PROFESSIONAL SUPERVISION

Practical Information

Dates/Times: One Tuesday per month 10-4 at the Ignatian Spirituality Centre, Glasgow

Dates: NB all dates are subject to recruitment numbers

2022-2023 DATES

6 September; 4 October; 8 November; 6 December; 17 January; 14 February; 14 March;
25 April; 23 May; 20 June; 5 September; 10 October

Fees: £1500 for Diploma

Eligibility: Open to reflective practitioners, with a minimum of three years professional experience in their chosen discipline who have accrued a minimum of six sessions as a supervisee.

Offering Supervision: Participants build up a practice log of 25 hours of individual supervision to gain the Diploma.

Being Supervised: Participants are required to receive monthly mentoring supervision from a professionally qualified supervisor during the training period to help them embed their learning and practice. Cost not included in course fee.

Assignments: Continuous assessment through a series of short Reflexive Learning Notes and a Summative Assessment Conversation with one of the trainers.

Accreditation: The course meets the training hours required for accreditation with APSE (Association for Pastoral Supervision and Education) www.pastoralsupervision.org.uk It may also count towards the accreditation requirements of other professional bodies.

Application Process: Application form; Reference; Interview.

Training Body

The Institute of Pastoral Supervision
& Reflective Practice

The course is designed, delivered and validated by The Institute of Pastoral Supervision & Reflective Practice. The Institute is an international community of supervisors specialising in training, publishing and research in the field. A full list of Associates and Publications can be found at www.ipsrp.org.uk The course has been developed over a ten year period and has over 100 graduates providing professional supervision in the UK, Ireland, France and Australia.

Trainer

Liz Crumlish

Liz Crumlish has worked in health care chaplaincy, in parish ministry and in accompanying leaders and congregations through transition.

Currently, she serves as a bi-vocational priest in the Scottish Episcopal Church alongside offering Pastoral Supervision and Training.

Liz is accredited as an Educator in Supervision by APSE and is an Associate of the Institute of Pastoral Supervision and Reflective Practice. Full list of publications at www.ipsrp.org.uk

Input may also be provided by IPSRP Associates as well as course graduates.

CLOSING DATE FOR APPLICATIONS: 31 JULY

Further information & Application Forms from training@ipsrp.org.uk