

TRINITY COLLEGE

University of Glasgow

Online Practical Theology Short Courses

with Trinity College Glasgow & Theology & Religious Studies, University of Glasgow

Open access courses available as a 10-credit course SQA Level 7 (accredited by the University of Glasgow) or audit-only for general interest.

Reimagining Christian Practice in an Age of Uncertainty...

Church and Christian devotion are facing a time of change unprecedented since the Middle Ages and made even more intense and uncertain by the Covid-19 pandemic. History suggests that such times of crisis provide the environment for innovation, creativity and renewal. Using insights from scripture, theology and the social sciences, this course will aim to identify the challenges while also offering examples of emerging expressions of Christian life and spiritual practices that are sustaining people at this time.

Who is it for?

This course is designed for those from any Church or Christian background, whether involved in church leadership or exploring faith and the challenges of discipleship in these disruptive times.

Tutors

John Drane & Olive Fleming Drane

(Teachers, Advisors to Fresh Expressions, Authors, Church and Mission Consultants, Seminary Professors)

Timetable & Duration

September 27th - November 29th, 2021

This course will take place online on Monday evenings, 7pm-9pm. This course will be taught via nine online Zoom meetings & instruction, and after-class activities.

Course Fee

£200 per applicant (for credit or audit).

Application & Deadline

To apply email:
trinitycollegglasgow@gmail.com

Please apply by September 6th 2021.

Further Information

Visit our website at:

<https://www.trinitycollegglasgow.co.uk/reimagining-christian-practice-1>

For any queries, please contact Mark Johnston or Eleanor Hayes at trinitycollegglasgow@gmail.com