Joy in CS Lewis

An exploration of the theme of joy—and its shadow side of grief and pain—in the works of CS Lewis

Facilitated by Drs Chris and Ros Brett

25th-27th April 2025

Day attendance Sat 26th possible

£195 for the weekend to include full board and accommodation

Chris and Ros are Directors/Trustees of Whitchester Christian Centre, Lay Readers in the Scottish Episcopal Church, retired university lecturers (but not in English literature or philosophy!) - and great lovers of CS Lewis' writings.

They look forward to exploring, along with other lovers of CS Lewis' work, the theme of joy (and grief) in Lewis' diverse writings.

Those new or relatively new to Lewis' writings are of course equally welcome!
